Officer Matt Cooke presents two young ladies with the first ever “Positive Ticket” which rewards children for good behavior and good deeds.

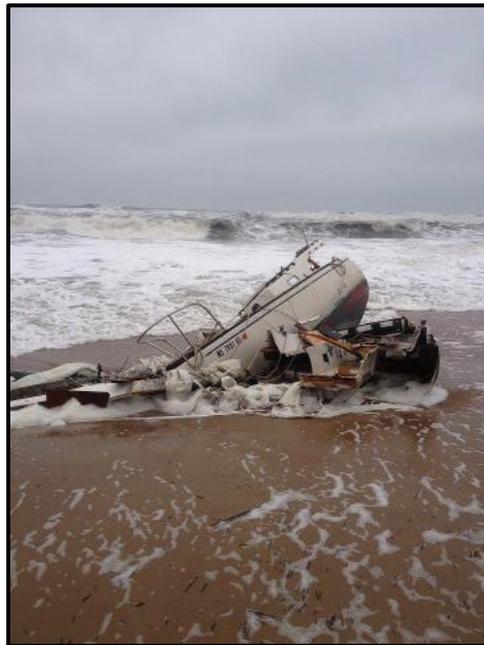

On November 19, 2012, a sailboat washed up on the beach in Southern Shores. The owner road the wounded boat in and was transported to the hospital where he was treated for hypothermia.

Southern Shores Officers checked on the boat throughout the night to make sure that it didn't wash out with the tide.

The boat could not be pulled in and the tide eventually tore the boat in half.

The owner of the sailboat walked away from this wreck but there was not much left of the boat by the next day.
